

Dahmer: so near to his dream

By Brenda Romanchuk
St. Paul Journal

"It is sad that John came so close to achieving a life long goal and did not get a chance to fulfill it." These words, spoken after the recent death of John Dahmer, MP elect, were those of the Honorable Ernie Isley, but also express the sentiments of many residents in the Beaver River Riding.

John Dahmer, age 51, passed away during the early morning hours of November 26, at the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton. His battle with bone marrow cancer was short, ending less than a month after he was admitted to hospital. John Dahmer is survived by his wife, Donna, and three children, Jolayne, Bill and Jacqueline.

Born and raised in Red Deer, Alberta, Dahmer moved to St. Paul in 1975. He resided there until 1986, when he and his family relocated to a farm near Elk Point.

The early years of Dahmer's work history were spent in educational field, as a teacher, principal and guidance counsellor. He came to St. Paul with Alberta Manpower in the role of a career counsellor, and was instrumental in the developing of Career Centres in this area. Prior to taking leave for his election campaign, Dahmer was Director of Lakeland College for the St. Paul, Two Hills and Elk Point region.

Always active in the community, Dahmer was a member of the Masons, Lions and Kinsmen clubs. He coached hockey and basketball teams, and was the driving force behind many of those teams reaching provincial playoffs in competition.

"We first met coaching in sports," said Isley of his long friendship with Dahmer. "That was in 1966, and we've been friends ever since." Isley is Alberta's Minister of Public Works, and his relationship with Dahmer extended past sports

Elementary School addition on hold

Applications totalling $223 million for construction, additions and modernization of school buildings, compared with $8.4 million in available funding, has led to Phase II of the Elk Point Elementary School modernization and addition project being put on hold.

Modernization of the south and east wings of the school, which commenced in June, 1988, is proceeding well, according to Elk Point School Trustee Janice Van Maarion, who adds that "Staff, students and parents have been very tolerant through the stages of construction, much of which has been trying and sometimes intolerable. We can now appreciate how the new classrooms will look, and promise returns as we tour the facility."

This Phase I, $820,000 modernization is expected to be completed by March or April 1989. Provincial grant support was received during 1988 for this work, from the School Buildings Branch of Alberta Education, with application made for further funds for Phase II in 1989. Phase II modernization was planned by the Board of Education, and recommended by the Buildings Branch to tie into and be included with the new addition project of the school for the 1989 budget year. However, this funding has now been declined.

An informational meeting aimed at organizing a Parent Teacher Association at F. G. Miller Junior-Senior High School has been scheduled for Wednesday, December 7, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

A guest speaker from the Alberta Federation of Home and School Associations, Mrs. Shirley Bryden, has been invited to address the gathering regarding the purposes of such an organization, and what can be accomplished under its auspices.

Principal Jim Hawkins will also discuss his philosophy regarding the relationship between the community and the school which is fostered by organizations such as the PTA. Attendance and graduation policies will also come before the meet-

When notified that the funding of the project to the Director of the School Buildings Branch, Board of Education made an immediate plea for reconsideration of the project to the Director of the School Buildings Branch, and requested a meeting with representatives of the Branch. That meeting took place Wednesday, November 23 on the site, to reiterate the needs of the school and community for this project. Mrs. Van Maarion says the representatives were "sympathetic to our needs and understood the crisis situation of the facility if further projects were put on hold. But, they explained, the Branch had $8.4 million to allocate for new construction, additions and modernizations, and they received $223 million in applications. Obviously, sufficient funds are not being allocated to school buildings."

Mrs. Van Maarion explains that the Branch assesses and prioritizes the applications, and approves those most in need. "They stated that we were on top of the list for 1990 funding and should reapply, as they were unable to support our application for 1989."

The Board met with John Drobot, MLA, on Monday, November 21 to ask for his support and help. His plea has been forwarded to Jim Dinning, Minister of Education.

After much deliberation, the Board agreed to formally appeal the Buildings Branch decision and personally present this appeal at their December 15 meeting in Edmonton.

Mrs. Van Maarion says that the interest and support shown by the public has been appreciated, and suggests that calls to the MLA, to Minister of Education Jim Dinning and even to the Provincial Treasurer would be of help in the Bord's efforts to obtain approval for the Elk Point application. These calls can be made toll free through the RITE government number in St. Paul.

Parents in the Elk Point area, concerned with the crowded conditions at the school, are finding their own way to ask for the project to continue. A petition has been drawn up and is being circulated, which will be sent to the government asking for further consideration in the matter.

Further information and answers to questions you may have, regarding the project, may be obtained from your local School Board representative: Janice van Maarion, Town of Elk Point, Bob Smith, Division 1, John Hutton, Division 2, and Bill Ference, Division 3.

You may qualify for a refund.

Persons who at any time since January 1, 1987 have received assistance from the above programs are favorably affected by recent changes to Alberta Government regulations concerning federal sales tax credits.

These changes mean federal sales tax credits are no longer considered as income when Alberta Social Services benefits levels are decided. In order to ensure equity, the provincial government has authorized Social Services to provide a refund to any person whose benefit has been reduced because of that credit since January 1, 1987.

If you declared your federal sales tax credit and had your benefits reduced as a result, please contact your Alberta Social Services District Office at once or, for Alberta Widows' Pension recipients, call 422-4080, Edmonton (outside Edmonton call the RITE operator for toll-free dialing). You may qualify for a refund.

Extensive involvement at provincial and federal government levels, led Dahmer to his recent bid for the position of MP of the newly created Beaver River Riding. Although hospitalized for the last 3 weeks of the campaign, Dahmer won the election with 13,768 votes, 7,240 more than his closest competitor. Unfortunately, Dahmer died before the official ceremony of swearing him in as an MP could be conducted.

Prayer services for John Dahmer were held at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, November 29, at the St. Paul Regional High School. Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 30, at the Elk Point High School. Mr. F.R. Upham and Rev. Samuel Donaldson will officiate, with interment in the Elk Point West Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, Donna Dahmer has asked that people donate to the W.W. Cross Cancer Institute, or the John Dahmer Community Involvement Scholarship Fund, which has been set-up through Lakeland College. Randy Ladrett, of Lakeland College, states donations to the scholarship may be made through the College's Vermilion office. The scholarship is a memorial to John Dahmer's commitment to the community.

Aside from memories and the scholarship, Dahmer's home town residents will have another way to remember him. Outside the Elk Point Library there is an 800 sq. ft. Historic Mural. This is a visual history of the Elk Point area, and if you look closely at the harvesters in the 1930's threshing scene, you will see one of them is John Dahmer.

"He wanted to be part of that scene, as a way of remembering where he came from and his roots.", stated Billie Milholland, Dahmer's Media Relations Agent throughout the recent election campaign.

Hawkins, who favors an 'open-door policy' in the school, feels that the formation of a PTA would be 'one of the steps to let the public know we want their input. We want the parents to feel comfortable coming to the school and approaching the teachers.' He adds that the school and community are 'closely linked,' which helps to build a better educational system 'in many ways, by supporting each other.'

Diana Anderson, who will chair the meeting, would 'encourage every parent to come, and see if we have enough interest to...get the organization off the ground.' Then, she says, 'we can work together to improve our children's education.'

What's news at the Library

To help celebrate Canadian Children's Book Festival and Alberta Children's Book Festival, the Elk Point Public Library sponsored a visit of Edmonton author Gwen Molnar, at the Elementary School on Wednesday, November 23. Adele Mandryk, Chairwoman of the Elk Point Library Board, introduced the author to the 200 enthusiastic children who took part in this exciting event. They indicated their pleasure with their loud applause. The winner of the draw for the book I Said to Sam, by Gwen Molnar, was Brett Kopeck, who is in Grade 1B.

Another event sponsored by the Library to celebrate Children's Book Festival was a Book Fair in the Library as well as at the Flea Market. This was an opportunity for everyone to purchase Christmas gifts, especially for the harder to find books for elementary grade children. If you missed out this year, be sure to watch for the Book Fair again next year.

Our Membership Gift Certificates are now on sale. If you have someone who likes to read, on your Christmas list, please consider giving him or her a gift certificate from our library.

There have been some changes in the Library Board. The following is a list of all members of the Board: Adele Mandryk, Chairwoman, Stan Dmytrash, Irene Miller, Charlie Mahon, Louise Krissa, Sally Vincent, Alvin Schuhmacher, Karen Ziegler and Niki Riemer. The Library Board is a volunteer one and they work very hard to make the Library a success. New programs and services that we now offer are the result of the Board working diligently toward expanding the library.

NEW BOOKS

Youth Section: The latest book, number 11 of the Mandie series is on the shelves. Written by Lois Leppard, the book continues the story of Mandie. The name of the book is Mandie and the Holiday Surprise.

Adult Section: We have the book World's Greatest Collection of Clean Jokes by Bob Phillips. This book has great one-liners or jokes for everyone.

Non-Fiction: Siblings Without Rivalry by Adele Faber and Elaine Mazlish is about helping your children to live together without quarrelling. It shows you how to talk to your kids so they will listen and how to listen so your kids will talk.

AUTHOR MAKES THE DRAW — Gwen Molnar reaches deep into the entry box for the winning slip. Brett Kopeck won a copy of Ms. Molnar's book.

Community TV channel coming to Elk Point

By Lawrence Pidluzny

Cable Channel 5 will soon come alive! We have been notified that the hardware (equipment) and software (program) are on their way to Elk Point for installation. What this will mean to the residents and cable subscribers of Elk Point is that we will now have another very inexpensive avenue for advertising community activities and events, special days, celebrations, etc. In addition to having this electronic 'bulletin board,' there will also be a facility for showing locally-produced videotapes of concerts, sporting events, car shows, fairs, local promotions, and any other non-copyrighted material which follows guidelines set out by the CRTC.

This will be a non-profit operation. The cable company will only supply the hardware, software, and cost of the telephone hookup necessary for programming the equipment. Blank videotapes, a VCR to play our tapes, cameras, phone line rental, etc. will all have to be supplied by interested community members, by donations, or by fund-raising projects.

We will need regular monthly sponsors for approximately $25 to $30 per month to cover the costs of the phone line and perhaps build up a fund for some minor purchases. Any business, club, organization, individual, etc. may apply. Your contribution will entitle you to have your name on the screen for one entire month as a sponsor only.

We need your support...this is a community effort. Please contact Lawrence Pidluzny at 724-4339 (leave a message on the machine) or 724-3966 (F. G. Miller High School) if you are interested in any of the above.

So brief a dream

John Dahmer was a man with a dream.

Where some of us dream of becoming a movie star, or owning a houseboat on a tropical island, he dreamed of helping to lead our country as a member of our government.

As the poll returns came in last Monday night, giving him a clear majority, he sat up in his hospital bed and cheered. His dream had come true.

Almost.

Tomorrow was to be the day he was to be sworn in as the first

Member of Parliament from the new federal riding of Beaver River. Instead, today, those who voted this charismatic individual to power will bow their heads by his grave side.

Cancer, undetected at the time the election was called, has claimed another victim. Mercifully, his suffering was only weeks in duration rather than the months and even years others have fought the pain.

Our sincere sympathy to the Dahmer family and to his countless close friends. We have lost a great man.

THEY LIGHT UP THE LIVES — Of audiences in the area with their skits and songs. This group of talented amateurs from Lac Bellevue are shown performing at Heritage Lodge.

So far this season we have four courses going. They are two Fun and Fitness for Seniors, Aerobics and Oil Painting. Christmas Crafts and Financial Planning and Credit for Women have been completed. Defensive Driving, Flower Arranging and Silk Scarf Dyeing have been cancelled. I was very disappointed to find that Defensive Driving, a course that we have been asked for, for at least two years, had to be cancelled. What happened to all the interest that was supposed to be out there?

We have five people interested in Basic Typing but only three have paid. We need eight paid registrants before any course can go. If you are interested, please phone me, talk to your friends, twist a few arms or do anything else (legal that is) to get this course filled up and going.

Courses for the New Year are Basic Sewing with Cheri Lindquist, Jan. 12 to Feb. 16; Moms' and Tots' Aerobics with Denise Kissell, Jan. 16 to Feb. 22; Word Processing or Typing with Rod Lis, Jan. 17 to Mar. 23; Oil Painting with Ralph Kryvenchuk, Jan. 19 to Mar. 16; Calligraphy with Claire Ference, Jan. 20, 21 and 26; Water Color Painting with Donna Dahmer, Jan. 21 to March 21; Machine Quilting with Lee Johnson (not Edith Mitchell as stated in the catalogue), Jan. 23 to Feb. 27; Sewing Machine Maintenance with Brad Gilbert, Jan. 24; and Basic Cross Stitch with Darlene Sereda, Jan. 31 to Feb. 21. For more information on these courses phone the office at 724-4101.

We have had requests for Ceramics, Photography, Chinese Cooking and Backyard Greenhouse. If you are interested in any of the above courses, please register as soon as possible—in fact, the sooner the better! All courses that are NOT filled one week before classes are to start

WILL BE CANCELLED. Late registration will be taken only if the eight minimum are paid. To register, drop in at the office, Tuesday 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., Wednesday 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. or Thursday 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., or send a cheque, made payable to Elk Point Further Education Council, to Elk Point and District Further Education Council, General Delivery, Elk Point, Alberta, T0A 1A0. Alberta Trails

A bundle of odds and ends

By Irene Magnusson

Now the Election is over, and we can all resume our normal state of mundane, ordinary-people routines, don't you feel kind of deflated and let-down? It was some big hullabaloo, wasn't it? For just a little while there, we could all feel like we were part of the 'big scene', that what we did or thought was important, as we were wooed—and won—by this party or that. Now we are back to mouse-size, simply citizens of Canada, our home and native land, maybe not the greatest country in the world, but certainly a really alright country, and the only place we'd ever want to be.

Of more importance to us today, may be a little article I read in the Western Producer back in October. 'Alberta Hospitals are Critically Low on Doctors,' the headline reads. Of course, they are referring to rural hospitals, and we know that, don't we? Surgeons and anesthesiologists are mainly what we are short of, resulting, as you all know, in every surgical problem, large or small, having to be rushed off to the city for treatment, there to languish long hours before the busy city doctors can lay on their healing hands.

All over the province, we have these nice modern, well-equipped hospitals, that cost the province a fortune, and the operating rooms hardly see the light of day. If you stick your head through the windshield, or fall off a ladder and crack a hip—you will be rushed off to the city. If your appendix ruptures, or a child decides to be born in an unusual fashion—off to the city. And some don't make it all the way.

The survey, done by a Dr. A. M. Irving of Pincher Creek, highlighted the shortage, which looks to become even worse, if nothing is done about it, resulting, he states, in a large portion of the population being neglected. He pointed out that most traffic accidents occur in the country, as well as hunting and farm accidents, and with these victims untreated until they get transported to the city, the death rate rises.

The main answer to the problem will turn out to be money, I'm afraid, as anyone intelligent enough to be a doctor must be able to figure out that there is more money to be made sitting in the city, running patients through the mill by the hundreds, than to go out to where the accidents, ills and pains occur, possibly not enough to fill every hour of every working day—and therefore not to fill the till so fast.

We have become a money-mad society, haven't we? No one wants to just 'make a living' anymore—they want to 'get rich.' The old concepts of being useful to humanity, to do good while upon this earth, is simply not enough. Never mind that doctors today, in Canada, receive far, far more in worldly recompense, than they have ever done before, (and certainly without the waiting and collecting pains of the Good Old Days). Still, they are not all satisfied, they will have more—and more—maybe forgetting they can only eat one meal at a time, drive one Cadillac at a time, wear one pair of pants—??? Well, I shouldn't pick on the doctors, they are certainly not the only ones who fall into this category—it's just that we notice them more.

Another bit of information I read states that the combination of smoking and contraceptive pills increases the rate of heart attack by ten times. Not a very calming prospect to look forward to, is it? I am beginning to believe, just by looking at the results in my own family, that smoking comes pretty close to being the root of most evils. (I'll, I should say.) Many of my relatives have passed on in their 80's or 90's, non-smokers, or those who quit many years ago. Then another group, all smokers, are dropping off in their 50's and early 60's—even in their 40's. Can that really be all coincidence? I'm talking heart failures here, mainly. And I'm not a doctor at all, or even related to one, but common sense tells me that smoking is more a cause of heart attacks than we have been lead to believe, that it certainly is a strong promoter of lung cancer—and that it raises ruddy hell with the human stomach.

I think the time may come when we will consider suing smokers for physical damage, if they smoke in our 'space', just as we would if they left live ammunition lying around, or cars with no brakes, or put salmonella germs in our soup.

On the lighter side, here's a news snippet which says that in the United States, a few hospitals provide 'humor rooms' for some patients, therapists teach 'smile therapy' and an organization called 'Nurses For Laughing' is growing fast.

Researchers have found laughter is the best medicine, that it can be 'an antidote for stress,' and 'good for the immune system.' These professors, studying the laughter phenomena, think that laughing can 'increase the pain threshold, by releasing endorphins, the body's natural pain killers.' Moreover, says another therapist, the laughter facial muscles instruct the brain to feel good, no matter how rotten you feel otherwise.

I think I am inclined to agree with all this laughing business. I've always felt there are two sides to most things, one of them being the lighter side. I would much rather be surrounded by persons who can make a joke—or take a joke—than a bunch of sourpusses, any day.

After all the political stuff we've been exposed to over the past few weeks, this seems apropos: Will Rodgers said, 'When I make a joke, it's a joke; when they make a joke, it's the law.'

Seeing as it's almost Christmas, time to be filling the Santas Anonymous boxes, try this word for size: And the question asked is—where would you be most likely to meet an eleemosynar, (a) on a street corner, (b) in a museum, or (c) at the aquarium? And I may say that most of you are 'eleemosynars'—especially around this time of the year.

Confucius says 'He who is without puns is like a day without sunshine.' (There is gloom for improvement.)

An eleemosynar is one who gives charity—which I'm sure you all do. So enter the month of December with light hearts, a smile on your face and laughter in your voice. It will surely make life easier for those around you—and who knows?—may make your life easier, too.

In Memoriam

ORR, Clayton

In loving memory of our Dear Son and Brother Clayton Orr, who passed away on November 30, 1986.

Two years have passed since God came down from heaven He walked amidst the flowers He stopped to pick the sweetest And that one he picked was ours His golden heart stopped beating His body is now at rest God broke our hearts to prove That he only takes the best The blow was hard, the shock severe We never thought his death so near Only those who lost can tell The pain of parting without farewell Dear God forgive our tears And constant wish that he was here Others are taken, yes we know But he was ours, and we miss him so.

Clayton, even though you and your voice may have moved on, we will remember you forever.

Love, Mom, Dad
and Brother
Jeffrey

Thank You

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to all our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kindness during the recent loss of our dear wife/mother Pauline.

Thank-you for the visits, flowers, cards, phone calls, food and donations.

We have suffered a great loss but because of you some of our pain has been eased.

Thank-you.

Harry, Marie, Micheal
and Connie Chubey

Don't let your Christmas sparkle go up in smoke

The warm glow of the Christmas season is something we all enjoy.

But don't let that glow turn into tragedy.

Keep your holiday season both festive and safe. Take a few moments for a quick check of your Christmas lights before you deck the halls.

If you notice frayed cords or broken sockets replace the string. Keep metal icicles, tinsel and garlands away from lights. Don't use electric lights on metal Christmas trees. And when you are away or asleep, turn off all your decorative lights.

Only you can make your home a safe place. Start now.

When it comes to electrical safety - don't take chances.

Clandonald news

By Shirley Osinchuk

The Whist Drives are continuing to be popular Wednesday night outings, alternating between Rusylvia and Landonville Halls. The Nov. 9 winners at Landonville were Blanche Butz for the ladies and 'Dennis' (Eileen) Goad for the men. On Nov. 16, the ladies winner at Rusylvia was Frances Yaceyko and the winner for the men was 'Lorne' (Loretta) Harsiuik. As you see, it is not necessary to come as a couple. Everyone is welcome and will have a place. Whist starts at 7:30 at Rusylvia Hall on Nov. 30 and at Landonville Hall on Dec. 7.

Our condolences to the family and many friends of Alex Goldsmith who passed away on Nov. 14. Alex was an important part of the Landonville community for many years.

Congratulations and very best wishes to Reg Lovell who celebrated his 80th birthday on Nov. 20.

Our sympathy is extended to Shirley Pfefferle and her family, and all the friends and relatives of Mike Pfefferle, who passed away on Nov. 21.

The results of the Nov. 21 federal election are old news. About 70 percent of the people on the Landonville voters list and 74 percent on the Clandonald list went out to vote.

The second annual Craft Sale and Flea Market will be held in the Clandonald Hall on Saturday, Dec. 3 from 12 noon to 4 p.m. Call Elaine at 853-2759, Pat at 853-2375 or Loretta at 741-2167 to reserve a table.

The Elk Point Figure Skaters did well in the Regional A competitions held at the Derek Club in Edmonton on November 10 to 12, 1988. Elisabeth Ludlage and Shauna Loughran placed 8th and 9th respectively. Elisabeth now advances to Sectionals in Medicine Hat on December 6 to 10, 1988. In the Dance Competitions, also at Sectionals, Charlene Anderson, along with her dance partner, Michael Hawkes from Medley, will be representing our area.

Lioness plan breakfast

The Lioness Club was able to confirm at their last meeting that SANTA will be attending their annual Pancake Breakfast. It will be held at the United Church Hall on December 3 from 10:00 a.m. until noon. A gift donation to the Santas Anonymous gift box would be greatly appreciated. For those people who still have not purchased a Trip of the Month ticket, there will be ticket sales at the breakfast.

Lioness Charlene Nixon reported that the Santas Anonymous program was off to a good start. The support received from community groups and individuals enables Santas Anonymous to brighten the Christmas of those less fortunate and any donation, gift or cash, large or small, helps us to reach our goal.

Trip of the Month ticket sales are continuing at a good pace and the first draw date is fast approaching, so people are urged not to delay any longer if they want to participate. Tickets may be purchased from any Lioness Club member, at Elk Point Insurance and Realty, or by calling Holly Astill at 724-3926 or 724-4319. Lioness Club members will be at the Co-op on the afternoons of Dec. 2 and Dec. 9 for ticket sales as well.

The Lioness Club once again decided to provide fruit baskets for the three senior citizens' homes and the hospital—a small remembrance for the Christmas season.

Lioness Barb Croteau is presently updating the Block Parent Program and new people are needed to make this program successful. If you are interested in becoming a Block Parent, please call Lioness Barb at 724-3021 for more information.

Plans for our annual Ladies' Night Out on March 4, 1989 are progressing and tickets will be available early in the New Year.

The meeting concluded with a scarf tying demonstration with Kathy Lund of Two Hills. She also had a large selection of her hand dyed silk scarves in a marvelous array of colors available for sale.

Ask a Family Life Educator

Lately my four year old daughter has been asking a lot of questions about where babies come from. I don't want to give her wrong information but I really don't know what to say. Any suggestions on where to start?

One thing that will make it easier is to use proper names for body parts. You might say "The mother and father make a baby together. He puts his penis in her vagina so the sperm can go from his penis to join her egg. That is how a baby starts. Then it grows inside the mother's tummy for nine months, when it will be born." Some pictures could help your daughter understand what you are saying to her.

Ask a Home Care Nurse

My mother has several medical problems. Does Home Care treat people other than those with arthritis or diabetes?

Yes. Many of our clients are diabetic or have arthritis. We also see clients with heart disease, cancer, high blood pressure, multiple sclerosis, stroke, emphysema or other chronic disease.

Ask a Dental Hygienist

My neighbor takes her young children, ages 2½ and 4, to the dentist for checkups. Since baby teeth are going to fall out anyway, isn't this a waste of time and money?

Definitely not. Baby (also called primary or deciduous) teeth, need the same care as permanent teeth. A cavity in a primary tooth can be just as painful as one in a permanent tooth. Healthy primary teeth are necessary for proper chewing, for good speech habits and most important, they make space for the permanent teeth that will follow them.

My son is home alone for about half an hour after school until I get home from work. What things should I be teaching him?

Your son should know the following:

1. How to use the key.
2. If he wears the key around his neck, keep it tucked in so no one sees it.
3. Not to panic if he loses his key. He can go to a neighbor's or a store and call you.
4. Lock the door once inside. Then phone you or a neighbor to say he is safe.
5. If someone is at the door he should sit quietly and pretend no one is home.
6. When answering the phone, just say hello. He should never tell anyone he is home alone.
7. Make a list with him of people he is allowed to let in.
8. If there is a fire, get out immediately. Call the fire department. Don't go back inside.
9. If he finds an open door, a broken window, or a ladder next to a window he should go to a friend's or neighbor's for help. If there are no adults around, he should call the police or you.

Next week we will answer your questions on nutrition, environmental health, speech-language therapy, and hereditary diseases.

Association approves marketing areas

The Lakeland Tourist Association approved the concept of dividing the huge Lakeland Tourist Zone into five marketing areas, each with three to four directors on the Association's Board, at their Annual Meeting, held November 19 in Lloydminster.

The intent of the marketing area concept is to ensure that all geographic areas within the farflung zone have an equal opportunity to be represented and heard from. It was emphasised that this is not a breaking apart of the region, but a marketing tool to see that the interests of all areas are served.

Area 1 covers the northernmost portion of the zone, and includes the city of Fort McMurray and the communities of Fort McKay, Fort Chipewyan and Anzac, as well as Wood Buffalo National Park. Directors for Zone 1 are Fort McMurray Mayor Chuck Knight, Fort McMurray Chamber of Commerce President Paulette Coburn, Fort McMurray Visitors' Bureau representative Diane Slater, and Improvement District 18 North representative Leo Brosseau.

Area 2 covers an area from roughly midway between Fort McMurray and Lac La Biche in the north to the North Saskatchewan River in the south, and from a line drawn northward up Highway 881, on the east, to the western boundary of the Lakeland zone. St. Paul, Smoky Lake, Lac La Biche, Thorhild and surrounding areas are contained in this area, which is served by directors Garth Collins of LW Radio, St. Paul, Bob Pattison of Ashmont and Peter Goruk of Smoky Lake.

Area 3 adjoins Area 2 on the east, with a northern boundary on a line with Wandering River, and its southern boundary an east-west line just south of St. Paul, which angles northward slightly past the northern tip of Frog Lake. The eastern boundary is the Saskatchewan Border. This area will be served by Sharon High, a campground owner from the Grand Centre area, Ruth Isley, who operates houseboat tours on Moose Lake, Larry Lysachuk of the Bonnyville Chamber of Commerce, and Saran Ahluwalia.

Area 4 covers the southwest portion of the zone, from the North Saskatchewan River south, and from the western boundary to approximately Secondary Highway 881. A small portion on the north side of the river, covering the Lac Sante and Foisy areas, is also included. Directors are Dave Kucherawy and Connie Bryson of Vegreville, Nick Hauca of Willingdon, and Daniel Stepaniuk of Innisfree.

Elk Point, Vermilion and Lloydminster are contained in Area 5, which makes up the southeast corner of the zone. Directors for this area are Catherine Hildebrand of the Vermilion Chamber of Commerce, Steve Rowan of the City of Lloydminster, and Billie Milholland and Vicki Brooker from the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce.

The nineteen newly appointed directors, along with Past President Metro Lypka of Two Hills and LTA Manager Lise Langevin, will meet early in the New Year to appoint an executive from among themselves, and to plan for the coming year's activities.

Good week for the Centennial Elks

Elk Point Elks Hockey Club wound up a successful week with Sunday's 8-5 win over Cold Lake Packers, before a surprisingly good crowd in view of the Grey Cup festivities. The Elks were decked out in their handsome new black and white sweaters for the game.

Earlier in the week, the Elks went on the road to rack up a win over Goodfish Flames and a tie with Bonnyville Pontiacs.

A scoreless first period exploded into a nine-goal second, with newcomers Lyle Hamm and George Ward teaming up for the first Elks goal only 13 seconds into the period. Cold Lake's Bob Cooper promptly tied it at 1-1, off assists by Perry Stadler and Yves St.Denis. The Elks soon responded with a pair of goals, the first by Willie Lesyk, assisted by Kerry Loughran and Murray Scoggins, the second by Keith Campbell, also assisted by Scoggins.

Cold Lake once again evened the score, with goals by Mike Hambley, assisted by Mark Sabad and Kean Doherty, and by Brian Frank, assisted by Doherty. New Elk Rick McMartin put the Elks back in the lead, off an assist by Campbell, only to have the Packers retaliate with a goal by Glenn McNaughton, assisted by Frank and Hambley. The Elks, however, had the last say of the period, Murray Cochrane scoring off assists by Troy Lorenson and Scoggins with 48 seconds on the clock.

The third period saw the Elks pile three more goals on the scoreboard, compared to one for the Packers, who seemed to have trouble shooting anywhere out of the reach of Elks goalie Tim Martin. George Ward scored the first of the period, assisted by Glen Bodnar and Mike Boratyne, while Troy Lorenson was assisted by Murray Cochrane and Marvin Ference in the second. Robert Sirois scored the final Cold Lake goal, off assists by Tim Pettit and Glenn McNaughton, while Lorenson, Cochrane and Lesyk combined for the final Elks goal of the game.

Both teams were on their best behavior, with few penalties assessed to either team, and not a single scuffle to mar an afternoon of excellent hockey.

The Elks travel to Cold Lake tomorrow night for an 8:30 p.m. game, and are at home to the Goodfish Flames on Sunday, December 4 at 3:00 p.m. Come on out for some great hockey action.
